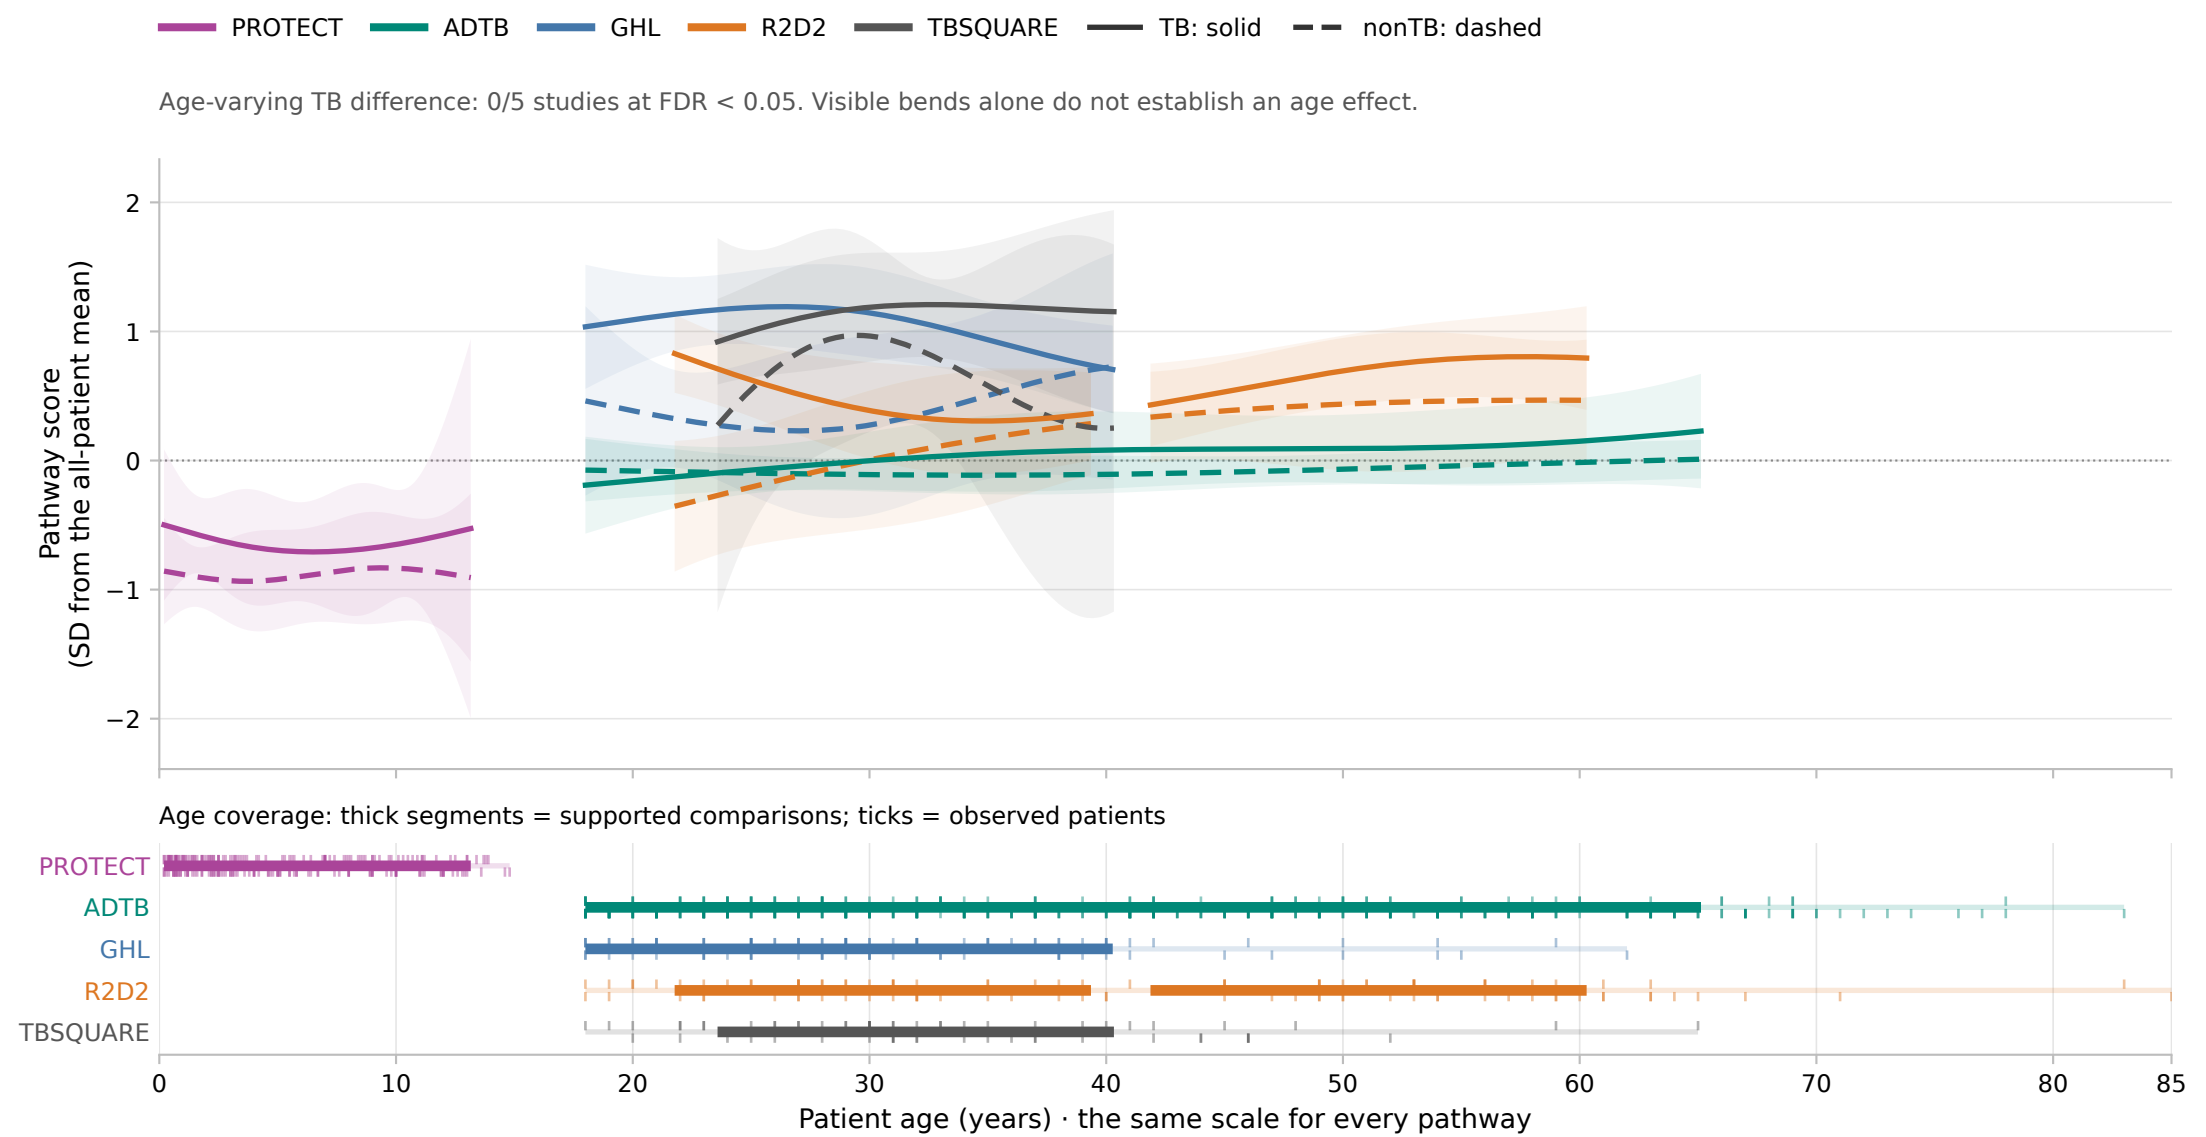
Complement across age

One shared age axis · separate adjusted curves for each study



Color = study. Solid = TB; dashed = nonTB. Pale ribbons = pointwise 95% confidence intervals.
Blank segments lack enough support for a TB–nonTB comparison. Each study retains its own clinical mix.
Different people at different ages: these curves do not follow patients as they grow older.